Spring 2009

“Spring Fling” Set for April 26, 3-5 p.m.

Mark your calendars for Sunday, April 26. That's the date of this year's LWHA Spring Fling. From 3 to 5 p.m.

It will be held at the Nottingham Court island (as last year). It's bring your favorite dish – covered or not. Tea, water and paper goods will be provided. Please see all the details on the picnic flyer with this newsletter. We had a great turnout and lots of good food last year. Let's do it again.

Bring lawn chairs for seating.

We will be accepting voluntary donations in any amount to help with the cost of drinks and paper goods and to start a picnic fund for next year.

Thanks to Niki Joyce and Kim Pisano for coordinating this fun time.

County Commission Approves Road Takeover

On April 9 the Leon County Board of Commissioners unanimously approved our county-takeover road project. This approval will allow the County begin the process to upgrade our roads and drainage systems and then maintain them.

Thanks to those of you who were able to attend the commission meeting. And a special thanks to Jim Mann who spoke on behalf of the Association.

The next step will be to meet with the Leon County Public Works staff to learn their schedule.

The homeowners association board will keep you updated on the road project via newsletters or the LWHA web site.

Welcome to the Neighborhood

Welcome to new neighbors Danny and Donna Smith on Locksley Lane and Mike Carrasco and Laura Lee on Nottingham Court.

And congratulations to Angie and Clay
